PATRICK BOYLAN

Here is how SIETAR Election Committee Chairman Patrick Boylan kept busy over Christmas holidays. Together with the Peace Movement in Rome, Italy, he staged a Living Nativity Scene in the streets from Christmas until the Epiphany (January 6th), the day the Three Wise Men arrived in Bethlehem bearing gifts and thus the day on which Italian children receive their most desired toys.

Actually, it wasn't an enactment of the Nativity in Bethlehem but of a real event that took place over Christmas in Falluja, Iraq. A woman gave birth in the streets of Falluja because her home and neighborhood had been destroyed (by "intelligent" bombs?) and the local hospital, together with 5 doctors and untold patients, had been annihilated, too (by "intelligent" bombs?). In the portrayal pictured above, an American soldier, repentant, has just broken his rifle and is seeking to help the woman and her injured husband (well, at least the soldier is intelligent!).

Three wise Imams arrive bringing the Iraqi family, as gifts, Justice, the Right to Resist, and Media that tell the truth (that's Patrick under the gaudy pink robe, holding the gift box labeled "Verità"). The Living Nativity Scene was staged to raise funds for the World Tribunal on Iraq, Italian Session, which will investigate how accurately the Media have covered Iraq and which will be held at the University of Rome III in February. ### INTERNATIONAL STUDENT LEADERSHIP CONFERENCE

First Annual International Student Leadership Conference March 14-16, 2005
Dubai, United Arab Emirates.

Zayed University announces its First Annual Student Leadership Conference, to be held March 14-16, 2005, in Dubai, United Arab Emirates. The conference will bring together female students, faculty mentors and student leadership professionals of both genders from around the world to focus on issues relating to "Women as Global Leaders."

The conference format will include presentations by prominent world leaders and personalities, opportunities for participants to interact with these leaders, as well as papers, simulations and workshops. Pre- and post-conference activities will allow participants to experience the rich culture and surroundings of the Emirates. While student participation is limited to female students, faculty mentors of both genders are invited, with parallel and interactive sessions planned for all participants. All sessions will be in English.

Founded in 1998 and named in honor of the late Sheikh Zayed bin Sultan Al-Nahyan, and with campuses in both Abu Dhabi and Dubai, Zayed University offers an international style education to Emirati women. Its educational program has become a model for higher education in the region. Graduates from Zayed University are prepared to assume leadership roles in their families, the country and the region, thereby shaping the future of the Middle East and its relationship to the rest of the world.

We invite you to join us for what promises to be a milestone event in leadership education and in the history of the Middle East.
