

Stay in touch with SIETAR mailings

Print newsflash

Newsflash, March 2006

Dear SIETAR members,

The Board is trying to work out ways to serve you even better in 2006 than in previous years. This message summarises some recent developments.

We are also looking for your input. Please read on...!

NEW WEBSITE

On 1st January we introduced a new website. If you haven't yet visited, please check it out!

CAN YOU NAME THE BABY?

SIETAR Europa's new web-based magazine needs a title. We are looking for suggestions from members. The magazine aims to be unique, provocative, fun, useful, and targeted at intercultural professionals, focusing on topics which interest them. The name should be all those things. We plan to publish Issue One without a name, and look forward to your suggestions for naming future issues.

EVENTS

Develop your intercultural coaching skills, meet Fons Trompenaars, visit Thailand! There are many great events for interculturalists in our new Events Calendar

LIST YOUR EVENT

It's free for SIETAR members. More information...

SPONSOR THE SIETAR EUROPA MAGAZINE

We invite sponsors to support this lively new publication. More information...

GOT A FEW MINUTES? THIS IS NEVER BORING

The latest SE Board minutes are now available. You'll need to log in. More information...

OLD NEWS

Did you forget something important that you once read in a SIETAR Europa mailing? Now you can find many past mailings in our News Archive.

REVIEW OF PETERS MAP

Read George Simons' review of the 2006 Peters Map in our Book Reviews section. Thanks George for your contribution!

BEAUJOLAIS NOUVEAU (STATUTES AND GUIDELINES)

If you have been eager to read the new Statutes and Guidelines of SIETAR Europa, the wait is over! You can read them by clicking here.

INTERCULTURAL ISLAM: YOUR FEEDBACK NEEDED

We hope that you have already read the brand new SIETAR Magazine on Islam. The editor looks forward to your feedback. Write to the Magazine via the Contact/reply and Editor pages. Requires log in.

CONSULTANT NEEDED (LONDON)

Announcement: The London-based Media Diversity Institute is looking for an RD Product and Resource Consultant for 28 days of work, starting immediately. More information: Email Contact or website.

ASSOCIATE EDITOR NEEDED

The World Cultures Yearbook is seeking an Associate Editor for the World Cultures Report 2008. The position is open to individuals from outside Europe, and is for a one-year period initially. Contact Jocelyn Guihama.

INTERN POSITION IN HELSINKI (E-LEARNING)

Cross-cultural e-learning project is looking for an Intern based in Helsinki. Duration of assignment: 30 days over the next 3-4 months (start immediate). For more info: please contact Caroline Beery.

PREMIERE JOURNEE DES FRANCOIS DE L'ETRANGER

Those of you who live in France or visit Paris on the weekend might want to attend the 1ere Journée des Francois de l'etranger, which is held in the Palais du Luxembourg, Paris on 4 March. The programme seems extremely interesting so if you have no other appointment for the day, consider attending it. More information...

REVIEW YOUR SIETAR EVENT

If you are ready to write a review of a SIETAR event, we would be happy to publish that on the website. We'll also consider publishing the best reviews of other intercultural events too.

NEWSLETTER AND MAGAZINE SPONSOR

The current newsletter and magazine sponsor is ArgonautOnline: online resources for intercultural training.

Ildiko POLYIAK
SIETAR EUROPA Board of Directors
On behalf of the Board

---

This email newsflash is sent to all SIETAR-EUROPA members between Newsletters.
Click here for the archive of previous newsflashes and newsletters